

About the F1 application form

Application (no specific form provided)

When to use this form

You can use this form if you would like to make an application to the Fair Work Commission (the Commission) and there is no specific form provided.

Please carefully check the Forms page of the Commission's website before using this form. If there is a specific approved form for your purpose, you must use the approved form that is available on the Commission's website.

Lodging and serving your completed form

1. Lodge your application and any supporting documents with the Commission. You can lodge:
 - by email to lodge@fwc.gov.au, or
 - by post or in person at the Commission's office in your state or territory.
2. As soon as practicable after lodging, serve a copy of this application and supporting documents on the Respondent.

You can serve documents several ways, including by email, express post or registered post. An easy way to serve documents is to copy the Respondent into the lodgment email you send to the Commission.

Note: If you are unsure about the service requirements for your particular application, you can seek directions from the Commission by lodging a Form F48 – Applications for directions on procedure.

Where to get help

Commission staff & resources

Commission staff cannot provide legal advice. However, staff can give you information on:

- processes in the Commission
- how to make an application to the Commission
- how to fill out forms
- where to find useful documents such as legislation and decisions
- other organisations that may be able to assist you.

The Commission's website www.fwc.gov.au also contains a range of information that may assist.

Throughout this form

This icon appears throughout the form. It indicates information to help you answer the question following.

Legal or other representation

Representation is where another person speaks or acts on your behalf, or assists you in certain other ways in relation to a matter before the Commission. A representative could be a lawyer, paid agent, union, employer organisation, association of employers, peak council, or a not-for-profit association or body that provides support, advice or advocacy in relation to employment or workplace relations matters.

You do not have to be represented to bring a case to the Commission.

There are some rules about when a lawyer or paid agent can represent you.

Unless the Commission decides otherwise in a particular case, you do not need permission for a lawyer or paid agent to:

- prepare and lodge this application,
- prepare and lodge submissions about your case, or
- write to the Commission and other people involved in the case on your behalf.

Generally, you must give notice to the Commission and seek permission from the Commission Member dealing with your case if you wish to have a lawyer or paid agent represent you in a conference or a hearing. You do not, however, need to give notice or ask permission if the lawyer or paid agent is:

- your employee or officer (for a business), or
- a bargaining representative that is representing you, or
- an employee or officer of a union, employer organisation, association of employers, or a peak council that is representing you.

You can notify the Commission that you have a lawyer or paid agent using this form – provide their details at the question ‘Does the Applicant have a representative?’

If you need to notify the Commission that you have a lawyer or paid agent after you have lodged this form, or if you need to ask permission for your lawyer or paid agent to take part in a conference or hearing, use Form F53.

Rule 13(2) of the Fair Work Commission Rules 2024 sets out further exceptions to the requirement to give notice and seek permission.

For more information about representation by lawyers and paid agents, see section 596 of the Fair Work Act 2009, rules 11, 12, 13 and 14 of the Fair Work Commission Rules 2024 and the Commission’s practice note on representation by lawyers and paid agents.

Glossary of common terms

Appellant – This is the person or organisation lodging an appeal.

Applicant – This is the person or organisation that is making an application.
